

You Know What You're Looking For in a Home Here's What to Look For in a REALTOR®

The Certified Residential Specialist® Designation, or CRS, is the hallmark of success in residential real estate. REALTORS® who have earned this credential did so by completing extensive training and by demonstrating significant experience in managing real estate transactions.

Less than three percent of the more than one million REALTORS® working today can call themselves a CRS Designee. This group represents the elite performers in residential real estate.
